THEY KNEW HIM IN THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Pastor's Letter

"You are witnesses of these things."

Luke 24:48

These are among the final words of Jesus to his disciples in Luke's gospel. Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit upon them; then he ascends into heaven. We might be tempted to think that these words are addressed only to the first disciples. Yet Christians across the ages have come to understand that Jesus gave this mission to all who come to believe in him, in every time and place.

How can we be witnesses to what we have not seen with our own eyes? The Risen Jesus did not appear to us as he did to his first disciples. We have not seen him with our eyes or heard his voice with our ears. We have not dined with him or walked the road as witnesses to his teachings and healings.

And yet, have we not been witnesses to his presence and working among us? Have we not listened to his words spoken to us through the gospels and dined with him as he shares his Body and Blood with us in the Eucharist? Have we not paused to recognize him in our loving service to our sisters and brothers in need? And have we not seen his face in the faces of those we serve?

For the past several years, Cardinal Cupich has called us to reflect on our work as missionary disciples. As much as the first disciples, we are called to give witness to what Jesus has done: for us in our personal and communal lives; and for all humankind. We are not meant to be passive recipients of the gospel, the Eucharist, or the gifts of the Spirit. We are called to allow these gifts to come to life in us and through our outreach to others. We do this through providing food, clothing, and shelter to those in need. We do this when we speak out on behalf of the dignity of each person: from the moment of conception to the moment of natural death and in all moments in between. More immediately, we do this by consciously and consistently giving life to our beliefs in our relationships with family and friends. We disciples do not need to travel to foreign lands to be missionaries. Our mission is first and foremost to the women, men, and children we encounter in each day.

I thank Jessica Chia, Owen Famulari, and Dominick O'Brien, three of the ten people who were fully initiated into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil. Last weekend, each of them gave witness at one of the Masses to their journey toward a relationship with Jesus and membership in our faith community. I also thank all the men and women who participated in our winter Alpha session, and the high school teens who participated in a similar program geared to them. Maggie McMahon and our parish Evangelization Team will offer our next adult Alpha session and teen program this fall. They also will be developing ways to bring the gifts of the Alpha experience into ongoing faith sharing and renewal within all parish ministries. The Holy Spirit will give us all that we need to heed the call of Jesus to go out as disciples in mission and share his story and how it shapes our lives.

If you are reading this before noon on Sunday, come on down to Joyce Hall (the lower level of the Education Building) and enjoy some pancakes and sausage. Our local Knights of Columbus Council is sponsoring this Pancake Breakfast to benefit various ministries that serve the other-abled in our area. All are welcome!

Easter Blessings,

J. Bill

Your Gift, God's Hands Offertory Report Through March of the Fiscal Year

Total Sunday and Christmas Collection:	$ 1,378,399
Targeted Offertory Budget based on 5% increase:	$ 1,367,000 (See Note 1)
Total Collected through March Last Year:	$ 1,314,977
Total Annual Offertory Budget:	$ 1,846,000

Our OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) candidates were asked to share reflections after the homilies at all Masses last weekend. In her reflection, Jessica Chia shared, "It is very hard to get filled up if you don't go to the well. Leading up to our Confirmation, we heard a homily on the reading of the woman at the well. Maggie McMahon asked all of us in OCIA if we felt like the woman at the well, and I thought, no, I feel like the bucket! Yes, I was this bucket, and each time I came to Mass, or our Tuesday night gatherings, I was getting filled up, whether I expected it or not. There were times when I barely made it on time, or was distracted, and every single time, I was blessed. I was blessed hearing the testimonies of others, I was blessed by the prayers of our priests, I was blessed by the fellowship and encouragement of so many of the parishioners here at Saint Francis. It is nearly impossible to get filled up if you don't go to the well, but it is almost as impossible not to get filled up if you do!"

Your offertory and Easter donations are an important part of helping our community "fill their spiritual bucket" at St. Francis Xavier Parish! God bless you for your stewardship!

Note 1: The budget was approved based on a 5% offertory increase over last year and the use of about $90,000 in parish savings to cover the budget deficit. Through March, our offertory is running close to the budgeted 5% increase, and we are still projecting a $90,000 deficit. Easter Collection is reported below and is not included in the March figures. Fiscal Year is 7/1/2023 – 6/30/2024

Vacation Bible School Registration is Open!

We are pleased to announce that registration for Summer 2024 Vacation Bible School is now open. As you may know from previous announcements, SFX is partnering with Grace Lutheran for this summer's VBS program. The VBS program will run the week of June 24th (Monday-Friday) from 9am to 12 noon at Grace Lutheran. VBS is open to children aged 4 through 4th grade. 5th-6th Graders can participate as members of a "service crew" that will spend the week organizing and conducting a variety of service projects.

Here is link you can use to register your child or children:

<https://vbspro.events/p/events/273552>

or use this QR code to access the registration.

A successful VBS program is not possible without the help of parent and teen volunteers! The registration form will describe the various volunteer opportunities available. Not all of them involve a five-day commitment. Volunteering for some role is not required but it is highly encouraged. We will be reaching out in the near future to follow up on your volunteer preference to provide further information. For those of you who have volunteered in the past you know what a rewarding experience it is for you and your children.

We look forward to a successful 2024 program and are grateful to Grace Lutheran for allowing the SFX community to resume our partnership with them. If you have any questions please contact Phil Zadeik at pjzadeik@gmail.com.

Teens Needed for Ministries at 5PM Sunday Mass

Being part of the liturgy is such a special gift. And our 5PM Sunday Evening Mass is for teens and run by teens, but we need your help! Below you will find the Teen Mass schedule for the rest of the school year. Please review the available slots to usher and sign up for one by clicking on this link: Click Here or by scanning the QR code.

We need at least four ushers for each Mass. A reminder email/text will be sent to you the week prior to the Sunday's you signed up to usher for. ## Eucharistic Miracles of the World

Sunday, April 14
8:30 am-1:30 pm
Notre Dame Parish
64 Norfolk Avenue
Clarendon Hills

In the entire history of the Catholic Church, there have been numerous Eucharistic miracles approved by the Catholic Church as truly worthy of belief. The Vatican Eucharistic Miracles Photographic Exhibition faithfully recounts for us many well documented miraculous occurrences. Knowledge of these miracles strengthens our faith in Christ and His Church. They are visible proof of Jesus Christ's Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.

The Exhibit was created by Blessed Carlo Acutis, a 15 year-old from Milan, Italy, who was just Beatified on October 10, 2020.

We highly encourage you to schedule time to view the exhibit during this Year of the National Eucharistic Congress.

Kitchen Angels

The Kitchen Angels are a group of parishioners who help people by bringing meals to their homes. The Kitchen Angels have been in existence for many years yet many of our parishioners are not aware of this outreach ministry.

If you know of a person or a family who could use some meals, or if you are interested in becoming a Kitchen Angel, please contact Susie Lehuta by phone at 708-354-6380 or email lehutam@gmail.com.
