Scripture Reflection

Today most of us are not in danger of being too familiar with Jesus the way those from his hometown were. We are not dismissive of the carpenter who was the son of Mary. But we can be effectively blind to the presence of Jesus in our midst in the modern world. We can be dismissive of those we confine to the margins of society. Who is that? A homeless person? A beggar? An immigrant? Or an undocumented person? What does that person know that we don't already know? What wisdom could that person have that we don't already possess?

There is a temptation in the religious realm and even societal realm to believe we have what we need to be complete and whole. There is little another person, especially one on the margins, could teach us about how to act, how to behave, or anything about God. That is precisely how the Nazarenes behaved with respect to Jesus. They thought they understood who he was. They knew his family, his backstory. What more did they need to know? In their minds, this upstart was too big for his britches. They took offense at him. Yet, God was effectively in their midst.

May we be open to finding the new, the unexpected, in familiarity. Let us not grow too familiar that we fail to see the presence of God in our midst.

To the word of the Lord
we say Amen

Seasons of Hope

Bereavement Support Group

The loss of a loved one is a time of deep sorrow in our lives and our grief is expressed in many different ways. "Seasons of Hope" is a faith-based, healing program for those who have suffered such a loss – spouse, child, parent, sibling, close friend or other loss.

To begin healing does not mean forgetting – our loved ones will be remembered forever. We can however, deepen our spirituality and faith by reflecting and sharing while being guided toward a path of healing. Our hope will be strengthened in the sure knowledge that one day we will all be reunited with our loved ones in the Kingdom of God's Great Love.

Participants meet weekly in a small group that is guided by leaders who care – who truly understand the depth of your sorrow as they too have experienced the loss of a loved one.

"SEASONS OF HOPE" is sponsored by both St. Francis Xavier and St. John of the Cross. Contact your parish office for the dates and times of upcoming sessions.

Taizé Prayer

St. Francis Xavier
and
Grace Lutheran

*All are invited to our Taizé Evening Prayer
Friday, July 13
7:30 pm
@
St. Francis Xavier*

Taizé Prayer is contemplative and most importantly communal, combining simple repetitive melodies that are sung by all, prayerful silence, scripture reading and intercessory prayer. This prayer can promote a kind to inner unity of person, allowing the spirit to be more open and attentive to what is essential. It is our hope that you will join us, especially at this time when our world is much in need of prayer.

Please note our new summer hours:
July – August – September:
Tuesdays – 9 am to 1 pm
Thursdays – 1 to 5 pm

Mark Burrows, Ph.D. author of Meister Eckhart's Book of the Heart: Practicing Wholeness in a Time of Fragmentation on Saturday, August 4 from 9:00 am-3:30 pm. "The eye with which I see God is exactly the same eye with which God sees me. My eye and God's eye are one eye, one seeing, one knowledge, one love." This is pure Eckhart, and one could say of such a claim that it is about all one needs to know. The challenge is putting it into practice. This retreat, based on the recently published book of the same title, will be an opportunity to do just this: to drink deeply from the wellspring of Eckhart's vision, and allow it to shape-shift our lives into more creative and audacious forms of faithfulness. Bold, courageous, and sometimes outrageous, his language continues to be a guiding beacon of light to those seeking to live more authentically, faithfully, freely. During this day-long retreat, we will explore Eckhart with help from a new book of the same name (written by the presenter Mark Burrows, with his colleague Jon Sweeney).

Mark Burrows is well-known internationally for his writings and as a lecturer and retreat leader. A published poet with a doctorate in historical theology, he has devoted his life as teacher and scholar to exploring the intersection of theology, spirituality, and the arts. Poetry and mysticism are his passion, "among the most practical and life-changing sources one can find," he says. Cost: $75 includes lunch.

Please Help Spread the Word...

to those who might want to become Catholic,
or complete their sacraments

In the fall, we will start a new round of the RCIA Process. RCIA - The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults - is the process of spiritual and educational formation through which adults become fully initiated members of the Roman Catholic Church. We are asking for your help identifying and personally inviting anyone who might be considering becoming Catholic. They could be unbaptized, or baptized Christians who want to accept the Catholic faith. RCIA is also for Catholics who did not yet receive the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

The number one reason women and men join the RCIA process is that someone they trust invited them to consider it. Please give it some thought. Additional details can be found on the parish website: www.sfxlg.org, under Parish, Sacramental Preparation, or contact Kate DeVries (kdevries@sfxlg.org / 708-352-0168), or Susan Lindsay (selindsay22@yahoo.com).

THIS IS ExodUS

Who needs reality tv when you have all the drama of the Old Testament? Come see Back Door Theater's original production of "THIS IS ExodUS". It is full of the vocal solos, dance numbers and the slightly sassy dialogue that our audiences have come to expect each summer.

There are two shows at 4:00 and 7:30 on Friday, July 13th to be held at the Nazareth Academy Auditorium, 1209 W. Ogden Avenue. Monetary donations made at the door will go toward stocking the shelves of the SFX Food Pantry.

Now in its 18th year, Back Door Theater's mission is to engage young people in an experience of faith through the expressive arts as a part of the larger faith communities of Grace Lutheran and St Francis Xavier.

For further information please contact Becky Hayes at bechayes@sbcglobal.net or at 708 878-2790.
