Pastor's Notes

The fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace.

James 3:18

Sister Dorothy Lynch, Sister of St. Joseph, brought to life these words of St. James. Her years of service to St. Francis Xavier Parish as Pastoral Associate inspired us all to “be doers of the word of God and not hearers only”. I was blessed to serve with Sr. Dorothy in the early 1990s, when she was guiding and developing the parish ministries of outreach and peace and justice. Our small offices were side by side in a small alcove next to the main safe (they disappeared when the front offices were renovated). Sr. Dorothy brought commitment, compassion, and tireless energy to her ministry. She brought others together to establish the parish Food Pantry operation that we know today and encouraged the BEDS shelter volunteers in the early days of that ministry. She comforted the sick and grieving and formed ministers to reach out to the homebound. Sr. Dorothy brought parishioners together to discern how this parish could reach out not only in charity, but also in acts of justice to raise awareness and work for changes in the attitudes and systems that fail to respect human dignity. For many of those years, Sr. Dorothy struggled with stubborn melanomas that often frustrated and discouraged her. Yet she continued to minister with a gentle voice and kind words for all. God bless her as she rests from her labors. Well done, good and faithful servant!

What are the seeds of righteousness that God calls us to plant in our day? And how do we cultivate those seeds in peace? We are challenged by a period in our history as a nation in which strident voices would force us to take sides against one another, refusing to seek common ground or consider the wisdom of the “other side.” We are confronted by the negative effects of clericalism in the church that led bishops to protect reputations and institutions rather than the safety of children and youth. We are discouraged by violence in our cities that takes too many young lives, and by those who would use terror to cause us to live in fear.

Amid all this, we disciples of Jesus are called to be countercultural. We carry the hope of God walking among us and God’s promise to bring life and meaning out of seeming death and insanity. We leave Mass each week having been renewed and reformed as the Body of Christ and instruments of God’s mercy. We journey in the breath of the Spirit, who persistently sends us into the world with the gifts we need to do all God asks.

Our coming together as a faith community is crucial to our witness. The next few months offer diverse ways for us to get to know one another and enjoy one another’s company. Next Saturday our parish elementary school families are hosting an Oktoberfest for ALL adults. Gather your friends and neighbors. Come meet a few new people. Cultivate some peace over beer and brats!

Peace,

J. Bill

Scripture Reflection

The Gospel today calls us to think critically and larger in ways that are inconvenient, uncomfortable, difficult and even disconcerting. To think effectively on the Gospel of Christ means to leave yourself open to serious and significant change, growth, and evolution. Many of us have been greatly blessed. Since much has been given us in life, then the Gospel calls us to give much to others in life as well. God has entrusted whatever wealth, time and talent we have and enjoy to be used in turn as “the servant of all.”

Don’t confuse “servant” with “slave.” A servant, in Gospel terms, freely and generously sets himself or herself to bear good fruits for others. Spouses, parents, teachers, leaders, politicians . . . everyone can and ought to see in their avocation and obligations in life a true calling from God to do good, to improve the world in which we live, and to correct abuses and selfishness in every way.

When Christians say or do hateful things or advocate hateful or negligent behaviors or policies, they are working against the very Gospel proclaimed by Christ and the Church.

“Whoever receives a child [here a metaphor for the needy and different who need our service] for my sake (Christ’s) receives me (the Christ), and whoever receives me (the Christ) receives not me, but the One who sent me (God).” Whom do you receive? How do you receive them? How great are you? Whom do you serve?

Deacon Andy Allison

Taizé Prayer

St. Francis Xavier
and
Grace Lutheran

All are invited to our
Taizé Evening Prayer
Friday, October 12
7:30 pm

Grace Lutheran

Taizé Prayer is contemplative and most importantly communal, combining simple repetitive melodies that are sung by all, prayerful silence, scripture reading and intercessory prayer. This prayer can promote a kind of inner unity of person, allowing the spirit to be more open and attentive to what is essential. It is our hope that you will join us, especially at this time when our world is much in need of prayer.

WHAT IS STEWARDSHIP

Our willingness to...

Acknowledge the blessings we have in our lives

Reflect how we can continue to use our time, talents, and treasure

Act as Jesus' hands and feet in the world

During the weekend of September 8 and 9, we devoted time to bless the Unity Garden, our new area leading up to Unity Hall. SFX staff and volunteers, especially the Buildings and Grounds Committee, shared their talents to design and oversee this wonderful addition to our campus (while overcoming some interesting construction challenges!). About 1,000 parish families (as well as hundreds who are purchasing bricks!) continue to give of their financial resources to support the 125th Anniversary Capital Campaign, which makes all this possible.

Check out this bulletin for what's coming up on the stewardship journey!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

How it Works:

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the official process of welcoming adults into the Catholic faith. It is modeled after the process used in the early Church for the initiation of new members. RCIA is for those not yet baptized, persons who have been baptized in another Christian denomination, and Catholics who have not yet received the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation.

The first phase of the RCIA process is called the period of "Inquiry." This is a period of searching, questioning, and investigation into Catholicism. It is a time to recognize and name your experience of faith, and how God is calling you to conversion. The Inquiry phase began on September 18, and will last through the end of November. Then, you will be asked if you would like to continue by preparing to receive the sacraments, or not. Details about the remaining three phases can be found at: www.sfxlg.org/RCIA.

Registration is necessary. Please contact Kate DeVries, kdevries@sfxlg.org or 708-352-0168.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH
— ARCHDIOCESE of CHICAGO —
AWARENESS - SERVICES - PREVENTION

Sacred Heart Domestic Violence Outreach Ministry and our Pastor Father Jacek Wrona invite you to our Silent Witness Exhibit, on Sunday, September 23 from 2:00 to 4:00 pm. The silhouettes represent local victims whose lives were taken by domestic violence. The objective of the exhibit is to bring awareness and provide information to our community about domestic violence. For the past twenty years, the Exhibits have been the most powerful way to honor those whose lives were lost in acts of domestic violence and to begin the healing process through awareness, education and treatment programs in hundreds of communities across America and several other countries, worldwide.

The Exhibit is a visual representation consisting of life-sized, red laminated silhouettes of the women, men and children murdered in acts of domestic violence during a specific period within each state, county or city. The goal of each Exhibit is to create an engaging display that will rally community support to grieve the losses of human life, create awareness and education materials and programs by collaborating with concerned and passionate members of your local community.

Remember My Story. Remember My Name.

In 1990, the Silent Witness Initiative began promoting and education to support an end to domestic violence through community-based exhibits. It started with a small group of volunteers in one state and grew into an international presence, with projects in all 50 states and 23 countries.

Silent Witness International is the leading voice that honors the lives of domestic violence homicide victims through family support, community connections, and advocacy for change.

Many men and women die each year in acts of domestic violence in the United States. Each one has a story. Join our efforts to end this tragedy. <http://www.silentwitness.net/>. Because we need to remember their stories. We need to remember their names.

Our Guest Speaker is Victor Pacini.
<https://www.victorpacini.com/>
Victor lost his sister Renee to domestic violence. He will tell her story and share his.

Responding to a Domestic Violence Call:

- City of Palos Hills Police Officer.
- There will be community outreach resources providing information.
- We will hold a candlelight vigil at the close of our exhibit to honor the victims of domestic violence.

This event will be held at:

- Sacred Heart Church, Ministry Center,
8245 West 111th Street, Palos Hills, IL 60465

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Domestic violence is the leading cause of injury and death for women of all socioeconomic, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds, and affects up to 1 in 10 men and 1 in 3 teens. We invite you to join us to raise awareness and stand in solidarity with all those affected by violence.

This event will focus on the problem of domestic violence in our community. Together, we will view a short video on domestic violence, hear the personal journey of Denise, a survivor, share in a Q&A, and learn what we can do to help others in this struggle.

Sponsored by the Domestic Violence Ministries of St. Cletus, St. John of the Cross, and St. Francis Xavier.

Seasons of Hope

Bereavement Support Group

The loss of a loved one is a time of deep sorrow in life and our grief can be expressed in many ways. SEASONS OF HOPE is a faith-based, healing program for those who have suffered such a loss.

To begin healing does not mean forgetting—our loved ones will be remembered forever. We can however, deepen our spirituality and faith by reflecting and sharing while being guided toward a path of healing. Our hope will be strengthened in the sure knowledge that one day we will all be reunited with our loved ones.

Participants meet weekly in a small group that is guided by leaders who care and truly understand the depth of your sorrow as they too have experienced the loss of a loved one.

SEASONS OF HOPE is co-sponsored by St. Francis Xavier and St. John of the Cross. The upcoming fall season is at SJC. Call their parish to register at 708-246-4405 (The winter session will be here at SFX with details to be announced.)

AARP Tax-Aide Needs Volunteers For the 2019 Tax Filing Season

Looking for a rewarding opportunity to make a difference in your community?

The AARP Tax-Aide Program is now seeking volunteers for the upcoming 2019 tax filing season. It’s not necessary for you to be an AARP member or to have a tax or an accounting background to volunteer. However, some knowledge of your own personal tax matters is very helpful. All returns are prepared on computers; thus, volunteers should be somewhat computer literate. Training classes will be held in January, 2019. Minimum time commitment during the filing season is 4 to 5 hours one day per week from early February to mid-April.

This income tax preparation and assistance service is offered to low and middle income individuals with special attention to those 60 years and older. Won’t you help?

For further information about the program and to sign up as a volunteer, please visit:

https://www.aarp.org/money/taxes/aarp\_taxaide/ or contact St. Cletus parishioner, John Wagner at 708-352-0170 for further details.

There are a few golf spots left and we’re in great need for sponsors, bag players, evening dinner participants and raffle prizes.

Contact by phone Bob Brogan at 708-243-7004 or Bob Bock at 708-646-9047.

Catholic Social Teaching on Refugees and Forced Migration

"Hope is the Force that drives the hearts of those who depart, leaving homeland, at times their relatives, in search of a better life which is worthier of them and their loved ones... Let us not be afraid of sharing the journey! Have no fear! Let us not be afraid of sharing hope!"

Pope Francis

Catholic social teaching calls on the global community to offer protection to individuals fleeing wars and persecution. Our church views welcoming the stranger as a duty that is derived directly from the life of mercy of Christ. We are called to support refugees and other forcibly displaced people overseas. We are called to welcome these new neighbors with the same love and compassion we would want ourselves to be shown in time of persecution.
