

Songs for July 5, 2020
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Opening Hymn: "Come to Us"

Come to me, come to us, pilgrim or stranger looking for change, or challenge, or light.
We are the people whose calling is care,
bearers of mercy, nourished in prayer.

Come to me, come to us, broken or building,
come with your children, your choices, your chains.
All are invited to friendship or rest,
to share in our struggle, our call and our quest.

Responsorial Psalm: "Psalm 145: I Will Praise Your Name"

I will praise you name forever, my king and my God.

Preparation of the Gifts: "Eye Has Not Seen"

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him;
Spirit of love, come give us the mind of Jesus,
teach us the wisdom of God.

When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith and bear us up within your peaceful word.

Communion Hymn: "The Summons"

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

Recessional: "We Shall Rise Again"

Come to me, all you weary, with your burdens and pain.
Take my yoke on your shoulders and learn from me:
I am gentle and humble, and your soul will find rest,
for my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

We shall rise again on the last day with the faithful, rich and poor.
Coming to the house of Lord Jesus, we will find an open door there, we will find an open door.

All music is used with permission.
