Pastor's Letter

Dear friends in Christ,

This Fourth of July, our nation marks the 250th anniversary of the founding of the United States of America, a remarkable milestone. As Catholic Christians and grateful citizens, we pause to give thanks to Almighty God for the blessings and freedoms entrusted to us as a people.

On our nation's birthday in 1880, the great preacher and pastor Phillips Brooks stood in the pulpit at Westminster Abbey and spoke of something solemn and worthy of the occasion: prayer for our country. His powerful words, which I'm sharing in my homily this weekend, remain timely today. We give thanks for the freedoms we enjoy, for our nation's commitment to religious liberty, for the dignity of work, for the pursuit of truth and education, for the care of the poor and vulnerable, for the countless homes and families where the future is being formed, and for the rich diversity of peoples and cultures that together make up the American story.

As Catholics, patriotism is fully expressed in service, responsibility and prayer, not merely as affection for our homeland. Love of country causes us to seek the common good, to defend the life and dignity of every human person - especially the needy and vulnerable - and to ask God's blessing upon our civic life and institutions. As we celebrate this historic anniversary, let's pray that Almighty God will guide our nation in wisdom, justice and peace, and that the blessing of God the Father, and of Christ His Son, may rest upon our country, our communities and our homes for generations to come.

Happy Fourth of July!
Fr. John

Prayer for Peace, Healing and Love

God of justice and mercy,
You created every person in Your image and call us to honor the sacred dignity of all human life.
We lift before You all communities and groups who are hurting.
Move our hearts to solidarity with all those burdened by violence, injustice, fear, and division.

In Your Church, remind us that we belong to one another as brothers and sisters in Christ.
Strengthen our faith so that we may believe in the power of Your grace to overcome hatred and despair.
Send us forth to be love in a wounded world—
rejecting violence, seeking understanding,
and working for peace rooted in justice and truth.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

“We pray, O Almighty and Eternal God, to preserve the works of Your mercy, that Your Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of Your name.

We recommend likewise to Your unbounded mercy, all our fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of Your most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.”

- Archbishop John Carroll

Music Notes...A New Look for Our Cantors!

At our 5:00 p.m.-Sat. (Vigil), 7:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Masses, our cantors have begun wearing a liturgical musicians “alb”. In many Catholic churches today, liturgical musicians are returning to, or continuing, a renewal of traditional sacred vesture — albs, cassocks, choir robes, and other garments historically associated with reverence in worship. At the same time, some of these same church communities and musicians – including St. Francis Xavier - remain deeply committed to promoting progressive and relevant social concerns: racial justice, care for migrants, environmental stewardship, economic equity, disability inclusion, and the dignity of LGBTQ persons...to name a few.

To some of us, I realize this combination appears contradictory. Traditional liturgical clothing is often associated with theological conservatism, while progressive advocacy is frequently linked to more contemporary worship styles. Yet within Catholicism, these realities are not necessarily in conflict. In fact, I see the renewed use of traditional vesture, especially for the “cantor”, as entirely consistent with a broader commitment to human dignity and social transformation rooted in the Gospel.

The “alb” has long symbolized baptismal promise, renewal, and the shared dignity of all the faithful. Worn by clergy and lay music minister leaders serving at the altar, it represents not personal status but participation in sacred service and toward the communal act of worship. The cantor’s ministry during worship is to engage and inspire the praying assembly into the multiple sung parts of the Mass throughout. I believe that this specific vesture can encourage a more prayerful connection between cantor and assembly, as well as promote unity among our cantors. This can help all of us center more attention on prayer and sacrament rather than personal branding.

I would like to go a bit further and say that sacred vesture for our cantors may also aid in their own personal spiritual transcendence in liturgy. Personally, I have truly experienced a positive change in mind, body and Spirit since wearing an organist “cassock”...allowing me to focus on the prayer more fully. In an era shaped by constant performance culture and digital self-promotion, albs can serve as a visual reminder that when we walk into our most beautiful and inspiring church space, we are here to envelop ourselves into something bigger.

The St. Francis Xavier Church Music Ministry continues to sing the Gospel through themes of justice and solidarity into church life through music ministry inclusion, music selection, prayer leadership, and community engagement. Our “contemporary” song often includes themes of equality, unity, liberation, peacemaking, ecological responsibility, and care for the marginalized. Progressive social concerns are not looked at as political trends but as expressions of Catholic moral teaching.

As the Director of Music, I believe in softening the culture-war divide imposed from outside the Church...the idea that one must choose between incense and activism, chant and compassion, or reverence and reform. I am proud to say that our parish is a church community for everyone...no matter what your liturgy style preference is, or where you are in your faith journey...and that we will continue to pray and live our mission: Belong, Believe, Be Love.

God’s blessings to all of you. Let’s keep singing!

For job seekers, cracking the behavioral interview means learning to tell your professional story in a clear, structured, and compelling way—using real examples that demonstrate your skills, character, and resilience. This session is about understanding the strategy behind one of today's most common hiring tools and learning how to use that knowledge to your advantage.

Participants will learn:

- The STAR method for structuring any behavioral answer.
- How to build a personal "story bank" before the Interview.
- What interviewers are really listening for beneath the surface of each question.
- The most common mistakes that cost candidates the job and how to avoid them.

Kathryn Kurinsky brings more than 25 years of Human Resources experience across a variety of industries.
