Pastor's Letter

"Nothing will be impossible for God."

Luke 1:37

Behold!

An angel appears to a young woman who is engaged and in the process of the marriage rituals, but for whom the rituals have not yet been completed. The angel tells her that she, a humble virgin of no status, has been chosen to conceive and bring to birth God's Son through the power of the Holy Spirit. This angel later appears to her betrothed, a carpenter, to tell him that he is to become the earthly father of the child that has been conceived by the Spirit. Two young people are asked to allow their lives to be turned upside down; to surrender their expectations of what their life was to be, and to trust that it is God who is asking this of them.

The young virgin, Mary, quickly submits to the angel's request. The carpenter, Joseph, must then struggle for a time to agree to do what is against everything he has been taught is holy and righteous. Their openness to what they cannot understand and their trust in God is how the conception and birth of the Christ Child came to be. For, as the angel proclaims, "Nothing will be impossible for God."

The angel's quick departure is much like this year's transition from Advent into Christmas. Sunday morning, we light the last of the four Advent candles. Only a few hours later, we gather to place the figure of the Christ Child in the manger. Even Luke's gospel moves quickly from the Annunciation to Mary and the Visitation with Elizabeth to the arrival of this homeless couple in Bethlehem as their child is about to be born. We are left to imagine the conversations and decisions of Joseph and Mary as they hastily complete the marriage rites and prepare to leave Nazareth before Mary's pregnancy is discovered by the religious authorities. And even though the distance from Nazareth to Bethlehem is not long, the couple was travelling by foot and donkey – not the most comfortable means of travel for a young, pregnant woman. They had to travel through unfriendly Samaritan territory; they surely had to stop frequently so that Mary could rest along the way and Joseph could offer his skills to help fund their journey. They arrive in a town that is overflowing with visitors and not particularly welcoming to a poor family from "the north." They must settle for shelter in a stable, surrounded by the smells and noises of the innkeeper's animals. All of this is how the birth of Jesus, the Son of God, comes about.

If you find yourselves amid the complications of travel and rushed preparations and a bit of tiredness as Christmas dawns, allow yourself to become one with Mary and Joseph as they entered the first Christmas Day. If you are apart from family this Christmas, choose to be with Anna and Joaquim, Mary's parents, who were far away and must have been worrying about their daughter, who was about to give birth to their grandchild. If you feel a bit separated from the excitement around you, sit with the shepherds on the hillside who were about to be awakened by the heavenly song of angel choirs. If you are searching for meaning and purpose, journey with the magi as they follow a star whose significance they hope to learn.

Jesus seeks to be born in your heart so that you may pronounce and carry his love to the world. And nothing will be impossible for God!

Christmas Peace,

J. Bill

Reflection For the 4th Sunday of Advent

Liturgy Planning Team #2

Carol Aronson, Barb Budak, Bernadette McMahon, Diane Redmond, and Joan Stopka

There are so many wonderful and positive statements in our readings for this Fourth Sunday of Advent. We are told that God will never leave us, he is with us forever. He is with us in the challenges and the joys of our daily lives, taking care of us. We are loved and blessed by his constant presence. We have nothing to fear.

Even our fourth candle on the advent wreath today is known as the "Love Candle" or the "Angel's Candle". God's love for us is made manifest through Jesus' birth. He cares for us by bringing about our salvation through his son. To accomplish this task, he comes to us through a young, grace filled woman who has the courage to say, "Yes". She places her life in God's providential care. Let us exemplify Mary by also placing that childlike quality of complete trust in God as we go to him with all our worries, fears, requests and prayers. Never forgetting to express our gratitude for all we are given while recalling the words of the angel, Gabriel, "Nothing will be impossible for God."

THIS CHRISTMAS

This Christmas...
Seek out a lost friend.
Replace suspicion with trust.
Mend a quarrel. Share some treasure.
Give a soft answer. Encourage youth.
Forgive an enemy. Apologize if you were wrong.
Welcome a stranger and gladden the heart of a child.
Try to understand. Examine your demands on others.
Appreciate. Be Kind. Laugh a little. Keep a promise.
Think first of someone else. Express your gratitude.
Go to church. Take pleasure in the beauty of the earth.
Speak your love. Speak it again. Speak it still once more.
Let us celebrate Christmas and give it the realization of its true meaning with the sudden stirring of the heart extended toward the care of life.
Then, it is possible to grasp the significance of the first Christmas.

SAFE AND SOBER HOLIDAYS

Did you know that 10-13% of all people in any community live with the disease of alcoholism or other chemical dependence? This includes 10-13% of our parish community. Each person who lives with a chemically dependent person also has a disease that negatively affects the lives of at least four other persons. 40% of the members of any community know someone, or are concerned about someone, or are angry at someone who lives with this progressive and potentially fatal disease.

If you care about someone who has a drinking or other drug problem, I encourage you to get help for yourself. Go to ALANON if you are affected by someone's chemical dependency. Go to FAMILIES ANONYMOUS if you are the relative or friend of a young person with drug problems. Go to ADULT CHILDREN OF ALCOHOLICS if you are the adult son or daughter of someone with an alcohol or other drug problem. Get help for yourself before you attempt to intervene in the life of someone who is addicted. This is the best gift you can give to someone who is dependent on alcohol or another drug.

Here are some healthy guidelines for holiday drinking and entertaining.

Fr. Bill

HOLIDAY DRINKING GUIDELINES

1. Drink only if you can. If you have been told not to drink, or if you take medication that does not mix with alcohol, don't drink.

Just one drink can hurt you.

2. Don't drink more than one drink per hour. If you can drink more than this without feeling any effect, it may be a symptom of the disease of alcoholism.

A high tolerance for alcohol is a sign of disease – not a good thing.

3. Don't drink if you "don't drink." Don't take a beverage to avoid hurting your host or hostess.

Not drinking is okay.

4. Alcohol mixes better with the gasoline in a car than with the driver. If you plan on having a "really good time?" then plan on not driving.

Drunk drivers can kill people.

HOLIDAY ENTERTAINING GUIDELINES

1. Never tell a guest, "Aw, c'mon. One drink won't hurt you. It's Christmas!"

The calendar has no effect on the effects of alcohol.

2. Don't serve more than one drink per hour to any guest. Minimize the time before serving food.

Don't poison your guests.

3. Don't give a guest who "doesn't drink" a hard time. Don't argue when someone says, "No thanks."

Provide non-alcoholic refreshments and let your guests choose.

4. Hot coffee or cold towels only make a person more awake. If a guest is drunk, do not let them drive. Get them a ride or cab or let them sleep it off.

Drunk drivers can kill people.

Surviving the Holidays

Some family situations can make the holidays difficult. For example, there's no money

the kids are at the other parent's house

a loved one has died this past year

These top ten tips for "Surviving the Holidays" can help you exchange the dread, anxiety, or loneliness for a time of inner peace and hope.

1. Have realistic expectations.

This year WILL be different; resist trying to make it the same as other years.

2. Know you can stay home this year.

This year you may feel like staying at home, which is a normal part of grief and healing. Many people may insist—maybe even push—to get you out. Be honest with yourself. If you are overwhelmed and need the security of solace, give yourself permission to stay in. If you go to the party and are ambushed by extreme emotions, give yourself permission to thank the host and leave early.

3. Do something special for yourself.

Plan a time close to Christmas day to go to a good movie, do a little window shopping, drop into church for a prayer, or enjoy a special treat. It doesn't have to be lavish. If you'd rather stay home, then download a favorite movie, cook a favorite meal, and cozy up in a way that comforts you.

4. Do something for someone else.

One of the best ways to come out of our misery is to help someone else. Volunteering restores many to the reality that God is good and there are many things for which to be thankful. Some focus their attention on Christmas presents for the children.

5. Keep it simple.

Having a Christmas tree may cheer up some; but for others it will be too depressing. Sending Christmas cards can be very therapeutic; but for some it is a time-consuming and unnecessary expense. Re-examine everything you used to do during the holidays; keep what works and let go of the rest.

6. Keep in touch with the children.

Children crave routines and rituals, which give them a sense of security—especially holiday customs. Keep as many of the holiday routines that they best love. Ask what their favorites are and help them focus on the fun.

7. Don't celebrate with your ex.

Unless it's been years, the kids are older, and you really do get along well. It sounds good that you should all be able to get along at the holidays—but it's most often a myth. In most cases it confuses everyone, especially the children.

8. Help the children buy a present for their other parent.

Imagine how difficult it can be to get a present for mom or dad without any help. Some things should never change: like encouraging children to love, honor, and respect both parents.

9. Draw close to God.

This holiday is about the answer to every person's prayer: God come to us in the flesh. Let Mary's kind eyes fall upon you and Joseph's strong gaze give you hope.

10. Go to Christmas Mass and rejoice in your heart.

On Christmas day your emotions may be extremely tender; the tears may flow, and the cries of your heart may mix with the strains of "Silent Night." But come. Come as you are. Know that you are loved. Know that there is hope. Know that there will be resurrection and salvation. This is the hope of these holidays.

O come, let us adore our God made flesh in Jesus.

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE OF STEWARDSHIP

Two weeks ago on Gaudete Sunday, we heard this reading from the prophet Isaiah:

*The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.*

Luke tells us that Jesus read this very scripture in a Nazarene synagogue at the beginning of his ministry.

*Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down.
The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him. He began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

As I look around me in our beautiful church on Christmas, all eyes are fastened on the baby in the manger. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in our hearing. Emmanuel has come.

As missionary disciples, we continue the work begun by the apostles who walked with Jesus. Your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure has a profound impact on St. Francis Xavier, enabling the parish to provide essential services and ministries every day of the year. This month alone, the parish has orchestrated programs that brought Christmas gifts to migrant children, St. Agatha parishioners, and Food Pantry clients. Both the elementary school and School of Religious Education hosted service days benefitting hundreds of our brothers and sisters in need. St. Francis Xavier priests, deacons, and lay ministers are leading us in prayer and worship – we anticipate over 3,500 individuals will join us for Christmas Eve and Day Mass.

None of these initiatives would be possible without your steadfast financial support. Our parish Christmas goal is $154,000. Your Christmas donation remains vital to our ongoing mission to "create a more just world through sacraments and worship, learning and service." Even if a gift is not feasible for your household this year, please be assured that the parish staff holds the entire community in our prayers.

Wherever you may journey this month, my hope is that you will experience the presence of the Prince of Peace!

Finding My Faith Story: A Half-Day Retreat

January 27, 2024 from 9:00am - 12:30pm
in Unity Hall (optional lunch to follow)

Using the four-door method of narrative spirituality, this retreat helps people find and tell their faith story by giving participants the spiritual tools to identify each of the following four elements in their own life story:

- a main character
- who encounters a compelling problem to solve
- identifies the power or talent needed to solve it, and
- takes action with this power to address the problem

Seeing our life story in these spiritual terms equips us to live the story in which we take action to use our own unique powers and talents to address the need that most touches our heart.

Retreat cost is $10/person. Click here to register!

Christmas 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, we also celebrate the birth of our hope. When he came among us as one like us in all things but sin, he lifted us up to new and transformed life. In fact, he opened for us the way to share in the very life of God. One of the prayers of the Mass gives us these words: "...may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity."

The struggles that we face in our personal lives and in our wounded world do not have the last word. We are meant for more. We are meant for full and eternal life. I pray that our celebration of the Lord's birth will remind us of the glory that will carry us beyond the challenges, sometimes truly significant challenges that mark our lives and our world.

We must also remember that the Lord did not just come among us once and long ago. He continues to walk with us as we walk with each other. Our celebrations of the Eucharist remind of that. And he will never abandon his people. He is now and always Emmanuel, our God with us. Our journey is his journey. And this year, having celebrated the first of two synods of the Church, we are especially aware that he accompanies us as we accompany one another.

In this holy season, I invite you to pray. Take time, create a quiet space, look on the creche, read the gospels, and allow yourself to know that he is near and that he walks with you. If you do so, I can assure you that you will know his peace. Then, take what you learn from him to your family, to your workplace, to your community, and to entire world. The gift of Jesus, the Incarnate Word of God, is not something we can hold for ourselves. We are called and destined to share it with others.

As I celebrate the Eucharist, I will remember you and pray that you will have a living sense of the Lord among us, the one who walks with us and draws us forward into the fullness to the fullness of his life.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cardinal Cupich

Archbishop of Chicago

As we enter the winter months, the nights are getting longer. Generally, people find the shorter days to be more depressing. However, how long would we be able to enjoy Christmas lights without the night?

Youth Ministry...in the meantime

After a series of interviews over the past seven months, we have not been able to offer someone the staff position of Coordinator of Youth Ministry. This leaves us without current leadership for several important ministries to our high school teens, especially:

- ◆ Planning and directing our bi-monthly program for teens on the evening of the first Sunday of the month (we alternate with St. John of the Cross).
- ◆ the ongoing coordination of the SFX Church League teams.
- ◆ our Kairos Retreat team (in collaboration with St. John of the Cross).
- ◆ our team for the summer mission trip.

Your stewardship of talent in any of the above programs would be a great gift to our teens. We can provide staff guidance and resources. If you are interested in ministering to our teens in any of these ministries, please contact Fr. Bill (wtkachuk@sfxlg.org).

SUMMER 2024 VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL IMPORTANT NEWS AND SAVE THE DATE!

The Parish Pastoral Council is excited to announce that SFX will be partnering with Grace Lutheran for a Vacation Bible School Program. The Summer 2024 VBS will run the week of June 24th (Monday-Friday from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm) so mark your calendars now as you plan your summer activities.

Registration for VBS will open at the end of January. More details about how and where to register as well as volunteer opportunities will be provided early next year. In addition to parent volunteers we will be looking for teen volunteers, a great way to get service hours.

For those of you not familiar with Vacation Bible School, the program is a faith based, one week long (mornings only) filled with fun indoor and outdoor activities. It is open for pre-K through 5th grade children. 6th through 8th graders can participate in a "service crew" which spends the week doing service projects in the community.

The PPC is very excited about providing the opportunity to the SFX community. Watch the bulletin and the SFX Facebook page for more details. You can reach out to Phil Zadeik at pjzadeik@gmail.com for further information about VBS and volunteer opportunities at this time. Thanks and have a Merry Christmas!

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a place to explore the Christian faith in an easy and friendly environment.

Each session starts with food and a short talk. Then there's plenty of time to share your thoughts.

There's no follow up, charge, or pressure. No matter your background or beliefs, everyone's welcome.

OUR QUESTIONS DRAW US CLOSER.
