Pastor's Notes

*"Teacher, where are you staying?" Jesus replied, "Come, and you will see."
John 1:37*

To whom do we go to seek wisdom? And who, or what, motivates our search? The apostles Andrew and John first were disciples of John the Baptist. When the Baptist points them in a new direction, they come to Jesus with questions and open minds and hearts; they "stay with Jesus" for a time to verify for themselves what the Baptist has told them. What they discover leads them to invite their brothers, Simon Peter and James, to come and see for themselves. Such is the process of making disciples.

We are living through a time of crisis on many fronts. Much of what confronts us today has been engendered over months and years by the efforts of some to "make disciples" in support of specific ideologies, power structures, or personality cults. Truth sometimes has become relative or even irrelevant. "Disciples" have been encouraged to act out of fear of losing something they have been told is vital, and to do whatever is necessary to "fight" for what might be lost. We are told we must "take sides" against those with whom we disagree rather than to seek the common ground from which we might build the more perfect union of which our founders spoke. And if you presume that I am speaking of the "other" person, position, or party, I challenge you to reflect upon how this may have begun to apply to you over the past year.

John teaches us that the process of becoming and making disciples of Jesus is radically different. It begins with an openness to discover more about something or someone that has stirred my heart or piqued my imagination of what might be. It is my response to an invitation to "Come and see" whether there is substance behind the excitement. Jesus persuades Andrew and John to become his disciples neither through theological argument nor pious acts. He invites them to spend time with him and to see how his message and actions affect the lives of others. We are given no details of what they "saw" that afternoon. Yet it transformed their lives and sent them to each invite their brother to become disciples with them.

When did you last spend an afternoon with Jesus to see what he is doing in this world: through those who are living out his command to love all as God's beloved children and to show a special care for the poor, the vulnerable, the oppressed, and the sorrowing in our midst? When did you last proclaim this good news to another and invite them to come to know Jesus? In the tensions of recent weeks and the ongoing crises of illness, economic uncertainty, and systemic injustices, have you spent time with Jesus and placed a desire to be his disciple above all else?

January confronts us with the challenge to recommit to foster the common ties of one people out of the many; to pray with our Christian sisters and brothers for deeper expressions of our unity in Christ; and to advocate for the unborn and for all lives whose dignity is belittled or denied. To whom will we go to seek wisdom? If it is Jesus, will we walk the difficult path to embrace fully his teachings and his actions of love? And will we have the heart and courage to invite others to "come and see" with us?

Peace,

J. Bill

Rectory Closed

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

Near the Colombia–Venezuela border, Venezuelan emigrants and refugees present the Church with an urgent need for pastoral and material support. In response, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America worked with the human rights office of the Archdiocese of Caracas, Caritas Venezuela, and the social justice ministry office of the Colombian conference of bishops to organize a January 2020 pastoral visit to programs serving refugees. During the visit, bishops and ministry leaders from Venezuela and Colombia met to assess and to raise awareness of the crisis in both countries.

Your support for the Collection for the Church in Latin America allowed the subcommittee to award an emergency grant of $10,000 to support humanitarian aid to migrants in the Diocese of Cúcuta in Colombia in February 2020. Located on the border, the Diocese of Cúcuta is a primary point of entry for fleeing Venezuelans who migrate to and through Colombia. In 2018 and 2019, the diocese was awarded three grants totaling $125,000 from the collection to assist with its migrant outreach programs. However, in 2020 the need became unprecedented.

By early 2020, two diocesan welcome centers for migrants were providing thousands of meals daily. What was once a parish initiative had become a systemic diocesan effort to support the growing number of migrants in need. This emergency grant provided a much-needed supplement to ensure that the programs continued. By supporting the Collection for the Church in Latin America, you help local parishes address the immediate pastoral and material needs of these vulnerable refugee families. Thank you for your generosity to the collection.

For more information visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections. To donate, go to: <https://www.givecentral.org/location/218/event/29204> visit our parish website, or place your donation in an envelope marked “Church in Latin America” and drop it off at the rectory or in a church collection box.

Parishioner Volunteers Needed

Our ability to celebrate Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals, and weekday and Sunday Masses depends on the ability of the parish to provide ministers to offer a welcoming and healthy environment. We have been blessed by scores of parishioners who share their time and spirit to keep us moving forward. To establish a regular rotation of volunteers, we seek additional people, especially to greet and seat people, or to wipe down the seating areas after each service. We welcome anyone of high school age or older who is in good health.

Please contact Maureen Pipal (mpipal@sfxlg.org) who will forward your name to one of our volunteer coordinators. Basic training is provided.

Bringing Communion To You

We are aware that there are many parishioners who are not homebound due to a physical limitation, but who are not yet comfortable returning to weekend Mass for a variety of reasons. We hope you have been able to view our weekly livestreamed Mass via the parish Facebook page or the parish website. In addition, several ministers of care are now available to bring the Eucharist to you at your home. Frequency and day of the week may depend on the number of requests we receive. Please call the parish office 708-352-0168. Monday through Friday, 8:30-4:30, or Saturday morning, 9:00-Noon and we will forward the information to Scott McDonald, who coordinates our minister of care team.

From Your SFX Parish Counselor

“...the silver lining of coronavirus is that it is making more of us aware of our fear of mortality so that we are more likely to ask ourselves the questions of whether we are living in full accordance with our highest values...”

“...Say I love you to a loved one you have not said those words to before or recently. Express gratitude to those you have not yet thanked for something or for being who they are. Do something—even if it is small—to make this world a bit better or someone else's burden a little lighter. Smile to strangers. And I am sure you can think of a myriad of other ways to act on these principles...”

Our Finances as of December 31, 2020

Note: This budget target of $1,643,000 assumes an operating deficit of $148,000 by the end of the fiscal year, which will be covered by operating savings.

Sunday Offertory	EFT/Credit Card	+	Basket	+	Other Offertory*	=	December Totals
December 2020	$ 76,517		$ 46,137		$ 43,872		$ 166,526
December 2019	$ 70,210		$ 67,179		$ 35,328		$ 172,717

** 4 Sundays in December 2020 vs. 5 Sundays in December 2019
 * Includes donations from stock, donor-advised funds, Holy Day contributions, and other miscellaneous gifts

As noted above, our offertory budget of $1,643,000 anticipates an operating deficit of $148,000. Typically, we set our collections budget to break even with expenses. However, with the restrictions in church attendance, we did not expect our collections to be at normal levels. This is evidenced in the graph above, whereby our collections to date are lower than the previous year at this time. The Payroll Protection Loan covered parish and school payroll from April until June, enabling us to conserve the offertory received during that time to cover the deficit with parish savings if needed.

Please note that our offertory through December is higher than where we expected to be at this time – every extra dollar reduces the anticipated operating deficit. God bless you for your stewardship of St. Francis Xavier Parish – we are so very grateful for your continued support through this pandemic!
