Pastor's Notes

*“Live in a manner worthy of the call you have received,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
bearing with one another through love,
striving to preserve the unity of the spirit
through the bond of peace.”*
Ephesians 4:1-3

The Ascension of Jesus challenged the first disciples to adopt new ways of living. They became more than “students” of Jesus who continued to reflect upon his words and the meaning of his death and resurrection. They responded to the call to be messengers of hope to the world by the example of their lives. The Spirit would stretch their minds and hearts to recognize the presence and activity of God in unexpected times and places. They would strive to be patient with themselves and one another; humble enough to continue to be taught; dwelling in love and seeking the peace that would support their communion of diverse peoples and traditions.

The Ascension of Jesus continues to challenge us: the church in our day and time. His presence must be seen in our witness of mutual love and concern rather than attempts to aggravate one another; in our attitude of gentleness and patience with others rather than an insistence on “my way”; in an ongoing willingness to learn rather than insisting that we “know it all”; in striving for unity in diversity rather than an artificial uniformity. Otherwise, the world cannot come to know him in and through us. And the world desperately needs us to shine forth as a prophetic sign of unity and concord.

Special thanks to the five women who share their reflections with us this weekend. A mother's vocation is to express, teach, and nurture attitudes of kindness and gentleness in the children entrusted to her care. Of course, Mary is the only mother we know to have done this fully from the moment of her son's conception to the moment of his death; and though free of sin, not even Mary would claim to have been the perfect mother. Many mothers among us inspire us through their humble, yet profound witness. Some mothers among us live with physical or emotional limitations or past experiences that impair their ability to live their vocation fully. Others face physical or emotional challenges in their children that demand additional creativity and sacrifice. Among us are women who anticipate the birth of a child or who grieve a child who died before or after the moment of birth. And many women without children of their own live out the vocation of motherhood by providing physical, emotional, and spiritual support to mothers and children, or by serving as teachers, coaches, and mentors. This day we honor all who live the vocation of motherhood in its many forms. We remember the women who have been mother to us, whether still among us or awaiting us in heaven. We rejoice and give thanks for those who have given us life and taught us well. We ask healing and peace for mothers who have struggled to do so, and for any children who suffered the lack of a mother's love. May God's love embrace them all.

Happy Mother's Day!

Easter Peace,

J. Bill

Scripture Reflection

As we will be discussing at the Commission meeting on Monday night, there comes a time when every great leader passes the mission/ministry at hand to those who come after them. In the gospel of Mark, that time for Jesus is now, on the occasion of the Ascension. This is the last time Jesus appears to his apostles, and he has very specific instructions for them: “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature.” Mark 16:15 In our first reading, Luke tells us that Jesus has mentioned their role in assuming the mission previously. Jesus said, “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem...and to the ends of the earth.” Acts 1:8 Their response: “They went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs.” Mark 16:20

We are the Body of Christ in the world now. We are his community of believers, called to carry on the great work of building the Kingdom of God here on earth. We, too, have received the power of the Holy Spirit, and are asked to share the gospel by the way we live our lives. Plus, as we have been promised, we are never alone. God is with us; and in and through the Church, we have one another to encourage and support us along the way.

This past month, we at St. Francis Xavier Church have witnessed hundreds of individuals receive the sacraments of baptism, reconciliation, first Holy Communion, and confirmation. We have been touched by the children, teens and adults in our midst saying “Yes! I believe,” to our faith, and “Amen!” to the very Bread of Life. They, and all who helped bring them to those sacramental moments, are great witnesses to the power and presence of Christ in our midst, and our responsibility to carry on the work of proclaiming the gospel. On this very special day, let's also remember and give thanks for the mothers and other great women who helped lead us to faith and offered strength for the mission.

Habitat For Humanity

Through the generous contribution of time, talent, and treasure, the St. Francis community has been supporting the Clarksdale Mississippi Habitat for Humanity program for 23 years. Every summer SFX sends several teams to Clarksdale to work on homes; and we have provided new homes to over 50 deserving families. It usually takes about one year to complete a home and it is common for the SFX teams to work on finishing homes that they started the prior year. To build a home, the local Habitat chapter must raise about $50,000. Upon completion, the resident is provided an interest-free loan from Habitat to pay for the home. In addition to paying for their home, the resident must invest 400 hours of sweat-equity into the construction of their home.

Through your generous support we were able to start a new home last summer and since we left, other teams have it to the point where is secured and weather-proofed, with a roof, windows and doors. This summer SFX will send three teams to Clarksdale to install siding, insulation, and drywall on the home and we are asking for your support to help us continue our work in Clarksdale and keep moving the house toward completion.

The weekend of May 19 and 20 SFX Habitat volunteers will be speaking at all Masses and the second collection will be for Habitat. Please be as generous as you are able. If you would like to donate on line, we have set up a Give Central account specifically for Habitat, located at sfxlg.org. Your donations have a direct effect on our ability to provide affordable housing to well deserving families. If you are interested in volunteering for one of the groups, please contact Bob Albertini at 708-482-4836. No building experience is necessary. Thank you for your support and prayers.

Word and Communion Services at St. Francis Xavier

We are looking for more Ministers of Word and Communion services to lead the services on Thursday and Friday mornings.

A Word & Communion service offers prayers, readings from Scripture, a short reflection on the Word, reception of the Eucharist (pre-consecrated) and blessings for all. These are led by members of the parish who have been trained in offering this prayer service, and we will offer training to you as well.

Please contact Maureen Pipal (mpipal@sfxlg.org) or 708-352-0168 if you are interested.

Thank you for your consideration.

Happy Mother's Day! St. Francis Xavier Parish is deeply grateful to the multitudes of mothers who volunteer their talents to nurture our community. Our mothers bring love to the classrooms and on retreats for our youth. They reflect with couples who are planning to marry here. They knit prayer shawls and "man" our food pantry. Mothers sing or play an instrument in our music ministries. These women visit those in the hospital and decorate our church throughout the liturgical season. And our mothers spend their time in prayer for the continued work of the Spirit here. God bless SFX mothers as you give of yourselves in the stewardship of time and talent.

We are six weeks from the end of our fiscal year. The gift of your treasure has brought many blessings to this parish, supporting all of the ministries mentioned above and MANY more. Currently, we have a shortfall in offertory. Please prayerfully reflect on your financial contribution to SFX and consider additional support to continue all our SFX ministries. Peace be with you!

Prior Month's Offerings:	EFT/Credit Card	+	Basket	=	April Total
April 2018	$ 56,572		$ 67,145		$ 123,717
April 2017	$ 43,736		$ 76,991		$ 120,727

God bless you for your generosity to St. Francis Xavier Parish!

We are implementing a new procedure for the weekend collection. In an effort to increase a sense of community and participation, we are now passing baskets from person to person in all sections of the church.

Also, you may notice small cards in the pews with the words, "I Support St. Francis Parish Online". These are available to those who are donating electronically so that they may give witness to their regular support of the parish. After this weekend they will be located on the tables at the entrances of the church.

Last fall, we announced a goal of enrolling 100 new households in the GiveCentral program for automated, electronic giving. We are happy to announce that we recently reached that goal, and now have over 420 parish households who contribute their regular parish offering electronically. Consistent support for our parish mission and ministries provides an amazing witness to the effect that our ministries can have on the community and the world. God bless your generosity of time, talent and treasure!

The Freedom & Power of Letting Go. On Saturday & Sunday, May 19 & 20 from 9:00 am–4:00 pm. Do you feel controlled by anxiety or emotions triggered by this challenging world? In this life-changing workshop you'll learn how to dissolve anxiety, fear, and any emotion that hinders inner freedom and self-knowing. Untying the Knots—Polarization in America. Join us on Saturday, June 2 from 9:00 am–12:30 pm. The definition of 'catholic,' lower case, is "all-embracing, universal, and diverse." Yet many Americans, including Catholics, have come to regard "The Other"...members of the 'other' political party or race or region or religion...as a threat rather than as a neighbor. In this interactive workshop, facilitator Mike McGillicuddy, LCSW, a social worker, will invite us to step outside our comfort zones, and explore the worldviews of others with curiosity and humility, while refraining from persuasion and judgement—illuminating the paths from polarization to healing and solidarity. Free to parishioners of co-sponsoring parishes SFX & SJC.

Bloom Italiano Encore! Join us for a benefit for The Well Spirituality Center on Sunday, June 10 at 3:00 pm for a spirited liturgy, followed by cocktails and appetizers in the courtyard, and a festive Italian dinner. Help us to honor Pat Bergen, CSJ, Janet Bolger, CSJ, and Kathy Sherman, CSJ for giving life to The Well Spirituality Center from its inception. Along with a silent auction, raffles, and great company, we promise you a full and enjoyable afternoon and evening. Cost: $75. Registration required by May 25.

Bluff Spring Fen Day Trip to Elgin on Friday, June 15 from 9:45 am–3:15 pm. Named for its rare fen, a type of wetland fed by mineral-rich springs, Bluff Spring Fen hosts unusual land formations carved by the glaciers and an unusual assortment of plants and animals adapted to the alkaline waters of the year-round springs. Led by butterfly expert Doug Taron, Chief Curator of the Chicago Academy of Sciences, we will explore wetland, savanna, hill prairie and mesic prairie during a beautiful time of year for flowering plants. Bring binoculars to spot the many migratory birds! Cost: $30, including transportation from The Well. Registration by June 11 required.

Pope Francis A MAN OF HIS WORD In Theaters May 18

In the film you will witness the kindness, understanding and sharing that is the sum of Pope Francis's pontificate. The humanity of the pope and his refined thought emerge from the images. The audience will be led into a relationship with Pope Francis, the man whom over a billion believers consider the successor of the Apostle Peter, and many others respect as a messenger of Jesus Christ, an advocate for the poor, and a humble person who is "a man of his word."

This movie is made for Catholics and non-Catholics alike. It conveys that God loves each one of us unconditionally—no matter what our color or creed—and we are called to also love each other, and to love the world that God has entrusted to us.

Children make up more than half of all Syrian refugees. They have witnessed violence, lost homes or loved ones, and most have been out of school for years. Refugee children, especially girls, are also more vulnerable to human trafficking, early marriage, and forced labor. Providing opportunities for education is one way to reduce their risk of being trafficked.
